

A Rocket Ship to Enlightenment

by Digby Bertram

John of God is an amazing healer. As a full trance medium, he channels the entities of light including Mother Mary, Jesus, St. Ignatius, King Solomon, King David, and doctors and nurses that are now in spirit. These energies can bring miraculous healing to any situation.

The Casa De Dom Ignacio is located 150 miles from Brasilia and each week thousands of people come to the Casa for healing. So far, forty million people have come to experience love and transformation at this healing vortex. I have been blessed to visit this healing vortex nine times in the last four years, each time receiving a deeper level of healing and transformation. Any one on the spiritual path can benefit from visiting the Casa.

From my initial inspiration to connect people with this energy I have been guided by Spirit to create products that contain the healing energies from John of God. The energetic frequencies in the John of God jewelry and crystals are beneficial to humanity because they vibrationally align and lift the wearer to the energy of the limitless healing and, as Oprah would say, "Living your best life."

Crystals and gemstones from the Casa, blessed by John of God, are cut into Vogel power-cuts to make some of the most powerful tools for transformation and spiritual healing available. Marcel Vogel, an IBM research scientist, had over 700 patents and is considered one of the fathers of the computer revolution. His research led him to an interest in studying sacred geometry. Vogel inspired crystal cuts are based on his research of sacred geometry and the transmission of energy.

Vogel's original design, the Star of David, creates holistic balance. It was designed to help energy workers expand their auric field and thus not be affected by any out of balance energy transmitted from their clients.

The other various power-cuts which are Vogel inspired have specific energies that produce effortless transformation:

- * The Magician cut promotes health, wealth, and happiness.
- * The Radiant Heart cut helps the wearer access the wisdom of the heart.

* The Pyramid cut has a trinity energy to assist in manifestation, transformation and living in the way of the Holy Spirit.

* The Star of Venus cut is associated with power, beauty, and the energies of Venus, the plane of love.

* The Flower of Life cut is for Christ consciousness and soul unfoldment.

* The Supernova cut helps with connecting to the energy of a no-limits universe, reaching for the stars, and being the star of your own life

Many renowned authors, healers and metaphysicians have owned and experienced the powerful energy of John of God jewelry. Here are some of their testimonials:

At the Afterlife Conference and ACEP Conference, I connected with Dr. Eben Alexander, author of Proof of Heaven: A Neurosurgeon's Near-Death Experience and Journey into the Afterlife. This number one New York Times best-seller chronicles Dr. Alexander's journey beyond the physical world and his encounter with an angelic being that connected him with the Divine Source. After this encounter, he knew heaven was real. When he encountered the John of God jewelry, his face broke into a beautiful smile and he immediately purchased two pieces of jewelry. He called these energies "A Rocket Ship to Enlightenment" and said that anyone would benefit greatly from these energies.

Recently, Donna Eden received the Angel Aura John of God pendant. A world renowned healer, Donna has helped humanity with her groundbreaking healing techniques. Her book Energy Medicine is a classic in the field of energy healing.

Rhonda Byrne from the best selling DVD and book, The Secret, received a John of God pendant with love and gratitude.

James van Praagh, a New York Times best-selling author, has a John of God pyramid and Moldavite supernova. He says that he loved spending time in Brazil in the healing currents of the Casa.

John Holland, another famous medium, has purchased items multiple times from us. He will be a featured presenter at this year's Afterlife Conference in Virginia Beach this June.

Academy Award winning actress and musician Jennifer Hudson has John of God jewelry.

Denise Linn, Louise L. Hay, Cheryl Richardson, Rev. Michael Beckwith, Jack Canfield, Colette Baron-Reid—all have John of God jewelry. These luminaries recognize the benefit of the energies contained within the John of God jewelry.

Sonya McCormick, manager of the Princess Sodalite Mine in Bancroft, Ontario, Canada, which is North America's only sodalite mine, told me her remarkable healing story. She suffered from hereditary migraines. As a child she knew to go out and play when the curtains were drawn at home because her mother was in so much pain from her migraines. Sonya's migraines were so overwhelming that they required hospitalization. Since receiving her John of God earrings 2 years ago, she hasn't had another migraine.

Angela Montgomery of Eclectic by Nature Metaphysical Center in Greensboro, North Carolina, also suffered from migraines. She put on the John of God earrings and within 20 minutes, her headache was gone.

Gail Thackray of Los Angeles, California is an exceptional medium and healer. She has appeared on Fox television nationally and astounded Fox TV personalities with her accuracy and insight. She does workshops and retreats all around the world, and often leads sacred tours to see John of God in Brazil. A Reiki master medium and healer, Gail has astounded the public at workshops around the world. Diane Nolen of The Enchanted Attic, St. Charles, Missouri, reported her best months of business in 15 years being open after receiving an attunement from Gail. Gail has said that the jewelry is very powerful in assisting her spiritual work. Gail has run billion dollar corporations and is a wonderful teacher and author. Please check out her website, www.GailThackray.com. At her workshops, Gail has demonstrated the power of the John of God jewelry.

Ariel Ford, author of The Soulmate Secret, reported sleeping better and having more well-being since wearing her John of God Radiant Heart pendant.

At the Raleigh Body, Mind, Spirit Show, a woman shared her healing miracle. Her daughter had just finished 2 years of chemo and needed employment. After touching the jewelry on Saturday, she came back on Sunday and said, "You're not going to believe this—my daughter got 3 job offers online!"

So many miracles have happened. We have love and gratitude for all of these miracles. We give thanks to God and John of God for his service to humanity.
